

Longsuffering
Acts 13: 18

All the days that we journeyed through the wilderness of sin in our spiritual death and rebellion against God, were it not for the sake of God's covenant promise written in the indelible ink of Christ's blood then he would have never suffered with our manners but he did because he was willing to write that covenant on our hearts through the Holy Spirit.